

Salvation Army Plans Drive for Usable Goods

Torrance closets and garages contain castoff clothing and other articles that can bring new hope to homeless and handicapped men.

The discards will be sought during the annual Salvation Army Salvage Week campaign in the Torrance area, April 18-23. A special fleet of Red Shield trucks will answer telephone calls from local residents who wish to make donations.

The articles will be reconditioned in workshops of the Salvation Army Social Service Center that serves this area. This provides a social rehabilitation program that helps hundreds of persons.

Brigadier William J. Parkins, manager of the center, said continuation of the program is dependent upon the contributions of discarded but still usable articles.

He said all receipts from sales of reconditioned articles in Salvation Army Thrift Stores above actual operating costs are returned to the homeless and handicapped who seek aid.

The center requires a continuous inflow of used clothing, shoes, furniture, dishes, mattresses, bedding, kitchen utensils, home appliances, silverware, stoves, radios, rags, rugs, books and bric-a-brac.

Camera Taken from Car

A Japanese camera was taken from the glove compartment of her car, Mrs. Boice Boden, of 4822 Narrot St., reported to Torrance Police Sunday.

J. Hugh Sherfey Jr., chairman of the citizens committee that is assisting in the salvage campaign, urged local residents to save their castoff articles for the Salvation Army and to telephone FA 8-1635 for a Red Shield truck during the drive.

USEFUL AGAIN... A worker at the Salvation Army Social Service Center that serves this area paints a chair that has been reconditioned. Donations of discarded articles like this keep a vital social rehabilitation program going at the center.

WALTERIA NEWS NOTES

Walterians Ready for Sunrise Services Next Sunday Morning

By Betty Mitchell

Another Easter season has rolled around and with it all the activities which make Easter so dear to us all. One of these programs is the annual Sunrise Service sponsored by the Walteria Business Men's Club and held at the Walteria Recreation Park. This year the service is starting at 8:45 in the morning with the biggest crowd ever anticipated. Chairman of the program is James Whitmer, while J. A. Beasley is co-chairman.

All three churches in our community participate in the program. Opening prayers this year will be given by Rev. Rainwater, of the Assembly of God Church on Hawthorne Ave. The message will be brought by Rev. Gene Gehres of the Community Methodist Church on Newton St., and the scripture and prayer by Rev. Owen Douglas of the Walteria Baptist Church on Park St. Special musical numbers will be presented by all three churches, including a solo "Were You There," by Reverend Douglas, a vocal duet from the Assembly of God Church, and the "Hallelujah Chorus," by the chancel choir of the Methodist Church. Since this is always an inspirational program, and gives to all who attend a sense of the true spirit of Easter, this reporter hopes that many in this community will be able to attend.

The Pacific Hills Home Owners Assn. will hold its next regular meeting at the Walteria School auditorium, on April 11, at 7:30 p.m. An interesting program has been planned for the evening, including talks on little league baseball by Mike Ramirez and Arlen Charter. Free refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. Many of you readers will be enthused to hear that the association is planning another bang-up dance for April 15, at the Nickle's Poultry ranch on Newton St. Music will be furnished by Tom Jones. Refreshments will be available. All this run will be had for just one dollar a couple.

Eddie Gellnas, of Hawthorne Ave., celebrated his fourth birthday which falls on April 3, with a party on Saturday, April 2. Neighborhood children and small fry friends attended the gay event with cake and ice cream making the afternoon even happier.

Another birthday party held on Saturday, April 2, was in honor of Nicky DeCaro, of Danaha St., who has recently marked his seventh year. This party was held at the Walteria Recreation Park, with 25 guests from school and neighborhood joining in on the fun. Refreshments of cake, punch, and fruit remain along with candy made the party more than a success. The cake, by the way, was led in blue and had "Happy Birthday" written in pink. Lucky prize winners for the afternoon were Linda Sue Hardy and Billy Mitchell.

John Workman of the U. S. Navy has been spending a very happy two weeks at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Streeter, of Adolph Ave. All good things must come to an end, though, so John must leave this week to be sent to the Philippine Islands, where he will spend the next two years.

Easter away from home is being spent by the William Roberts family of Newton St. The Roberts are spending their Easter vacation in San Francisco visiting friends.

Faith McAllister, of Clarendon St., is spending Easter away from home, too. She is visiting in San Diego, where she will take part in Easter Sunday services at the First Congregational Church in that city. The services will be televised over Channel 11, at which time she will appear singing with the choir.

Also visiting in San Diego are Beth Harvey and Patricia Kamfonk. They have been gone this week.

Visiting friends in the San Fernando Valley and Lancaster last Sunday were the Burke Mosleys, of Ward St.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gehres, of Ocean St., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decaro, of Danaha St., were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Beck at their Rain-tree St. home last evening. Colored slides were shown to add to the interest of the gathering.

Spending a more than pleasant week end recently at Big Bear, were Mrs. Joyce Beers, of Newton St., and her daughter Mary Lou. The snow was delightful and the tobogganing just great from what we gather. The only casualty suffered was a cracked lens on the camera.

Lancashire Society Party Plans Told

Members and friends of the Los Angeles Lancashire Society will be entertained at their headquarters, Foresters Hall, 1329 So. Hope St. at 8:30 p.m. next Saturday.

The entertainment will be centered around "The South Bay Kitchenette Band and Singers." Following this there will be refreshments and dancing provided.

All residents of Torrance of British origin are invited to attend the program.
